Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 181-212 are allowed.
3. Claims 181-212 are renumbered.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 181-185, 192-197, 199, 200, 202, 205 and 207-212, none of the prior art of record teaches or suggests fitting each of a plurality of polynomials to a portion of data points representing a received waveform, the portion of the data points including a number of data points in accordance with a selected window size, wherein the data points included in the portion include a designated data point and a specified number of data points relative to said designated data point, in combination with the rest of the claim limitations.

Regarding claims 186 and 198, none of the prior art of record teaches or suggests that the portion of data points has $N+M+1$ data points, N representing a number of data points prior to a first one of said data points included in said portion, M representing a number of data points after the first one of the data points included in said portion, and determining a first of the plurality of functions in accordance with the $N+M+1$ data points, in combination with the rest of the claim limitations.

Regarding claims 201-206, none of the prior art of record teaches or suggests fitting each of a plurality of functions to a portion of data points representing a received waveform, wherein each of said plurality of functions is a localized curve fitting of said portion of data points that approximates values of the data points in the portion; determining a characteristic for each of said plurality of functions, evaluating said characteristic of each of said plurality of functions at data points representing said received waveform; and detecting an event using said characteristic of each of said plurality of functions, in combination with the rest of the claim limitations.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
